

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

INDEX.

Appendix	323
Bacon-Foster, Mrs. Corra, Communication by	96-322
Balch, Rev. Stephen Bloomer, a pioneer preacher of Georgetown, 73-95. Macaulay, Boswell, Dr. Johnson and Goldsmith, 73. Dr. Balch's kith and kin, 74, 75. Richard P. Jackson, his son and daughter, 75. Birth, education and classmates of Dr. Balch, 76. Assumes the supervision of a Maryland classical academy; is made captain of militia; sees active service in the Revolu- tionary War; enters the ministry, 77. Preaches in Georgetown, D. C.; visits his home in North Carolina; learns of the death of his father; journeys through the Carolinas and Georgia, preach- ing, 78. Called to Georgetown; organizes the Presbyterian church; becomes principal of the Columbian Academy; marries, 79. Rev. David Wiley succeeds him as principal; founding of the Columbian Library, 80. Numerous occupations of the Rev. Mr. Wiley; Dr. Balch re-engages in teaching; additions to and improvements of the Presbyterian church, 81. New church built; new site selected; larger church erected; name changed; some of the worshipers, 82. Letter of Chief Justice Cranch, and comment thereon, 83. Dr. Balch joins many couples in wedlock and prepares many young men for the ministry, 84. Delivers a funeral oration upon the death of Washington, 85. Extract from Diary of Mrs. Thornton; biographical mention of Drs. Worthington and Beatty, 85, note . Title-page and preface to two of his printed sermons, 86. His second publication, a series of ten letters, 87. Brief notices of the three marriages of Dr. Balch, and of those of his children, 87-89. His island, his farm, his town house, his loss by fire, 89, 90. His lovable traits and his witty sayings, 91. His early salary, his long pastorate, his peaceful end, 92. Public expression of regret, imposing funeral, 93. Epitaph, the three successive places of his interment, 94. Mural tablet in chapel at Oak Hill, 95.
Ballinger, Mrs. Madison A., Resolutions on the death of	338
Memorial sketch of	339
Catholic Church, The development of, in the District of Columbia from colonial times until the present, 23-53. Laying the corner stone of St. John's, Forest Glen, 23, 53. Coming of the Dove and the Ark, and the celebrating of the first mass, 24. Early superiors of the Saint Mary's mission, 25. The Rev. Thomas Copley, 25-27. Why the early priests kept no written records, 28. Cern Abbey Manor, 29. Catholic families of early Mary- land, 30-33. Father Thomas Digges, 31, 32. Eleanor Darnall Carroll, 34, 35, 39. Archbishop John Carroll, 23, 25, 28, 32, 33-37, 39, 41, 45, 53. Second and third church erected for the congregation of St. John's, Forest Glen 38. Queen's Chapel,

- 39-41. Georgetown Chapel, and the founding of Trinity Church, 41. The pastorate of Father Francis Neale, 42-44. Catholic families of the District of Columbia, 44. St. Patrick's Church, 45-49. Barry's Chapel, 48, 49. St. Peter's, 49. Early Catholic directories, 50. Washington parishes and some famous parish priests, 51. The establishment of the Apostolic delegation and the founding of the Catholic University, 52. Summary of Catholic churches, priests and members, 53.
- Clark, Allen C., Communication by 73-95
- Committees for 1912 325
- Communications made to the Society during 1911 332
- Deaf and Dumb, A history of the Columbian Institution for 1-22
- Act of Congress and the incorporators, 1. E. M. Gallaudet put in charge and his mother appointed matron, 2. Organization, and corps of instructors, 3. New building, and the source of additional funds, 4. Congress makes liberal appropriations, grants right to confer degrees, 5. Noted speakers at the public inauguration of the College for the Deaf and Dumb, 6. First degree conferred, 7. Congress makes other provision for the Blind and there is a corresponding change in the name of the institution, 8. President Gallaudet sent to Europe to investigate the "oral method"; makes report; conference of educators held at Kendall Green, 9. Important legislation and generous appropriations secured from Congress, 10. Determined opposition of Mr. Washburn, death of Amos Kendall, purchase of his estate for the permanent home of the Columbian Institution, 11. Subscriptions from Philadelphia, Boston and Hartford, with an appropriation secured from Congress, clear the Institution from debt; noted speakers at the dedication of the new buildings, 12. Social functions, anniversaries, Mrs. Hayes inaugurates new building, 13. Memorial to Garfield in the Chapel, and to Amos Kendall in the primary department, 14. Women admitted to National College, 15. Statue of T. H. Gallaudet unveiled; graduate's essay attracts much attention, 16. Summary of occupations engaged in by graduates; normal class added, 17. College name changed; high caste Brahmin enters normal class, 18. President Gallaudet bears a greeting from the Columbian Institution to the different European schools for the Deaf and Dumb, 19. Additions to the housing accommodations; fire in the men's dormitory, 20. Liberality of Congress; special act declaring the institution not a charity; generosity of Amos Kendall, 21. His portrait; his wise counsels; his memory, 22.
- Dennis, William Henry, Resolutions prepared by 338
- Downing, Margaret Brent, Communication by 23-53
- Engraving, Copper, The earliest, executed in the colonies, 54-72

- First published account of, 54. High hopes entertained for Perth-Amboy; variations in the name, 55. Present state of New Jersey acquired by purchase, 56-59. Story of the "Indian Walk," 59, 60. Swedes driven from Elsinburgh, 61. The compiler and the engraver of the "Map of Rariton River," 61-63. Foster's map of New England; data concerning the same, 64. Engravers for whom the distinction has been claimed of being the first to engrave on copper in the colonies, 64-66. Earliest wood engraver, 66, 67. Paper money of Massachusetts, 67, 68. Other colonial issues, 68, 69. First colonial copper plate portrait, 69. Achievements of Dewing, Burges and Pelham, 69, 70. Probable instructor of John Singleton Copley, 70. First woman-printer in America, 71. Paul Revere as an engraver, 65, 71, 72. Best known portrait by Charles Wilson Peale, and by Edward Savage; first American-born engraver, 72.
- Gallaudet, Edward M., Communication by 1-22
- Hagner, Alexander B., Letter from, acknowledging Resolutions of Appreciation 336
- In Memoriam—Mrs. Madison A. Ballinger, Resolutions, 338. Sketch, 339.
- L'Enfant, Major Pierre Charles 32
- Members, List of, on February 20, 1912 326
- Necrology 363
- Officers of the Society for 1912 324
- Potomac route to the West, Early chapters in the development of, 96-322. Thomas Cresap, 96-106, and notes. Project of the French to take possession of the Western lands discovered and frustrated by Thomas Cresap; Ohio Company organized, 100, 101. Its officers and agents, 102. Surveys by Christopher Gist; Ohio Company builds a storehouse at Will's Creek; Cresap and Nemacolin blaze a path over the mountains, 103. Treaty with the Indians; prosperity of the Company; jealousy of New York and Pennsylvania; western settlers relieved from taxation, 104. Frontier protected; Braddock's road improved, 105. Stockholders in Ohio Company, 105, note. Famous Indian treaties; early friendship of three lads, 106. Early surveys for Lord Fairfax, 107. Beginning of French and Indian War; preparation therefor; report on the Potomac river, 108. Political influence of the Ohio Company; Gen. Forbes decides on new road; letter of Washington to Bouquet concerning the same, 109. The Fredericktown Adventurers, 110-114. Washington to Johnson on improvement of the navigation of the Potomac, 111-114. Managers, Potomac navigation improvement scheme, 114. Vandalia Company, 114-117. The Ballendine Scheme, 117-123. John Ballendine goes to London, 118. Cause of his non-success in London; efforts in Virginia and Maryland, 119. Conditional subscriptions and names of subscribers, 120. Press notices, 120-122. The Patowmack Company, 123-322. Commercial and political importance of the western settlements, 124. Letters to and from Washington on his retirement from the army; on developing the resources of the country, 125-131. Opposition of Stephen Sayre to the Potomac Company, 131. Efforts to harmonize the laws of Maryland and Virginia in reference to the Potomac river, 132. Washington journeys to Fort Pitt; some account of Jacob Joder, 133. Washington reports on his journey to Governors Harrison and Johnson, 134. Mass meeting at Alexandria, 135. Meeting of delegates and Commissioners 136-139. Washington writes full account to Madison, 139-141. Text of compact, 141. Stone amendment; important results of the compact, 142, 143. Patowmack Canal, advantages of, 144-147. Organization of, 147-151. First meeting of the directory, 152. Boats ordered, workmen engaged, 153. President and directors inspect the Potomac from Georgetown to Harper's Ferry, 154. Instructions to Mr. Rumsey, 155, 156. Enthusiasm of Washington, 157, 158. Declines presidency of the James river navigation company, 159, 160. Johnson to Washington, giving details of progress, 160-162. Redemptioners purchased to carry on the work; novel means adopted to prevent their running away, 162. Rise in value of real estate; Board meeting at Great Falls, 163. Accidents reported by Manager Rumsey; assistant manager appointed; assessment on shares, 164. Annual Report, 1786, 165. Report of committee, press notices, 166. Interest in canal possibilities of George Gilpin and Robert Morris, 167. James Brindley and other English engineers, 167-169. Extension of time of completion necessary, 169. Manager Rumsey's grievances and the answer of the Board, 170. Second assessment and second annual report, 171, 172. Change of managers, 173. Third annual report, 174. Second president of the Company; condemnation proceedings at Great Falls, 175. Work on the Shenandoah; advertisement for slaves; contract for 4 locks; foreign merchants purchase stock; fourth annual report, 176. President James Fitzgerald, 177. Town laid off at Great Falls; financial difficulties; number of shares increased, 178. Greater speed of accomplishment urged, 179. Engineer expert invited to examine the work, 179-181. Experienced engineer employed, 181, 182. Thomas Beall of Sam'l and his impossible task, 183. Trouble with an engineer, 184. Work continued but on a more economical basis, 185. Want of funds, and expedients to raise the necessary money, 186-188. Mortgage, loans and tolls, 188. Increasing difficulties, work suspended, 189. Maryland Legislature becomes stockholder, 190. Change of treasurer, work

- pushed, 191. Additional workmen, 192. Annual report, pension for workman injured while on duty, 193. Locks completed, 194. Improvement of tributaries decided upon, 195. Seal of the Company, 196. Work accomplished and that contemplated, 197, 198. Lottery authorized, 199-201. Work begun on Antietam river, 202. New stone lock at Little Falls, 203. Attempt to start a rival company, 204. A loan of $10,000 offered and accepted, 205. Relinquishment of right to open the Shenandoah river, 206, 207. Second drawing of the lottery; suit over a prize, 208, 211, 212, 213. More liberal terms desired by the Shenandoah subscribers, 209-212. Agreement as to mill sites and water power at the Little Falls, 213, 214, 217. Appeal to Maryland Treasurer for time, 215. Still hampered by want of funds, 216. Statement sent to Maryland Legislature, 218-220. Reports to stockholders and annual report, 221-242. Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company incorporated, 231. Rights and property of the Potomac Company conveyed to the Chesapeake and Ohio Company, 242. Present aspect at Great Falls, 243. Presidents and directors of the Potomac Company, 244. Letters to and from Gen. Washington, 244-259. Call from the President and directors of the Patowmack Company, 259-261. Answers of the Potomac Company to questions of the Secretary of the Treasury, 261-267. Potomac Company to Treasurer of the State of Maryland, 268-270. Potomac Company to the Board of Public Works of Virginia, 270-277. Excerpts from early books of travel, 275, 278-285. Report of Thomas Moore, Engineer, of Virginia, 286-295. Report on the Potomac by Isaac Briggs, 295-298. Acts of Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania and the United States Congress in relation to the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company and to the Potomac, 299-321. Meetings of the Potomac Company in the interest of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, 321, 322.
- Proceedings of the Society for 1911 333
 Report of the Chronicler 360
 Report of the Curator 355
 Report of the Recording Secretary 353
 Report of the Treasurer 352
 Resolutions of Appreciation presented to Hon. A. B. Hagner 335
 Resolutions of sympathy and sorrow on the death of Mrs. M. A. Ballinger 338
 Shandelle (S.J.), Rev. Henry J., Memorial sketch by 339
 Shoemaker, Louis P., Chairman, Committee on Resolutions of Appreciation 336
 Walsh, Charles Harper, Communication by 54-72